

Did you know...

The Parents Who Host, Lose The Most?

Many well-meaning parents think that it is enough to take away car keys at their teen's parties so the teens can't drink and drive. Parents provide the alcohol or allow alcohol to be consumed based on the false belief that it's a rite of passage, especially at prom and graduation parties.

Adults who knowingly allow a person under age 21 to remain on their property while consuming or possessing alcoholic beverages can be prosecuted and face jail sentencing, fines, civil lawsuits and/or loss of property.

Parents play a major role in their children's choices about alcohol, tobacco or other drugs. Research shows that most teenagers appreciate it when their parents set boundaries and establish expectations that are fairly enforced.
